

Quality Text to Quality Writing at KS2

Opening doors to challenging reading and inspired writing

A fresh model for using quality texts to stimulate quality writing

Resources to ensure Outstanding learning using:

- poetry
- prose

Take away 20 units of work to fuel progress

"We are still continuing to get some fantastic writing from your inspirational ideas. But it's not only the more able writers that are producing very high level work - our less able children are so excited and motivated that we can't wait to teach the lessons."

Sue Porter, Hampshire teacher

Boosting progress in English

Ofsted: meeting 'scholastic excellence' demands
National Curriculum: using quality texts, literacy heritage works and poetry

Guide to develop higher level reading and writing approaches

Plan with quality texts and quality writing in mind
Develop creative ideas to fuel high-level reading and writing
Enrich challenge approaches to accelerate pupil progress
Inspire all pupils to go beyond expectations and to mastery level
Understand how aspects of SPaG can be taught in context

Ready-to-use tools and activities for the classroom:

- modelled examples
- 20 units of work
- access strategies
- maps for reading journeys
- range of thinking skills ideas
- 'beyond the limit' ideas for each unit
- poetry resources
- fresh techniques for stretch and challenge

Free copy of Opening Doors to Famous Poetry and Prose by Bob Cox

Bob Cox

As well as presenting at national and international conferences, Bob has worked with teachers from across the UK in almost 400 schools, and has conducted over 75 Osiris training events. His focus now is on supporting the need for quality, freshness and creativity in English for all pupils. We are sure that his 23 years in teaching and advanced skills status will have a big impact on your school.

Meet the team

From your first enquiry through to the actual training day, our highly efficient team will co-ordinate each step. They will bring clarity to your first request, matching the right trainer to your school's needs. They will continually liaise with you and the trainer ensuring your day will be inspiring and challenging, adjusting to your ever-changing needs as required.

Call the team now for a free 10 minute consultation

 01790 755 783

www.osiriseducational.co.uk/INSET

Marketing code: IST OPEN