

Presenter Profile

Wendy Delf

A leadership and NQT support specialist, Wendy is an accredited Visible Learning^{plus} trainer with a wealth of experience across various roles in education.

Wendy has worked for over twenty years in the classroom, as an English and Drama teacher, a head of department, a senior leader and an Advanced Skills Teacher. She is passionate about providing newly qualified teachers with high-quality support and training, driven by her desire that all teachers make a difference in their classrooms and for their learners.

Wendy is at the forefront of the latest national testing developments in primary schools. She has also trained as an Ofsted Inspector and worked as a senior adviser for her local authority for many years. She delivers her training in an engaging and enthusiastic style, working extensively with senior leaders and teachers across the phases. Her areas of expertise include:

Assessment - Feedback - Leadership - NQT - Ofsted

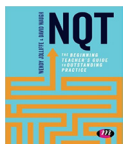

Primary - Secondary - Teaching and Learning - Visible Learning

Whole-school Programmes

Wendy is a Visible Learning^{plus} licensed trainer. Visible Learning^{plus} is an in-depth model of whole-school change. Created by John Hattie and available in the UK exclusively through Osiris Educational, Visible Learning^{plus} is the largest ever evidence-based research into what actually works best in schools to improve learning. It creates innovation in the learning environment and accelerates the process of individual and whole-school change

Published work

Wendy contributed a chapter, 'Effective Teaching', to NQT: The Beginning Teacher's Guide to Outstanding Practice, Wendy Jolliffe and David Waugh, 2017, Learning Matters

Testimonials

"Wendy is a very talented and gifted course leader. She helped reassure me about what I'm doing and also filled in the gaps I had and concerns."

Cecil Williams, Course Delegate

"Fantastic. [Wendy is] very experienced. She knew what she was talking about."

Olga Petridou, Course Delegate

"[The course was] really useful, appropriately paced and well structured. Wendy was knowledgeable and up to date on key publications, standards, etc."

Liz Massey, Course Delegate

To enquire about booking Wendy Delf, please contact us:

 01790 755 783  osiriseducational.co.uk  @OsirisEdu