

Assessment in PE

Presented by Crichton Casbon

Crichton is a national leader in PE. He inspired the development of the PE National Curriculum and its assessment for over 11 years at the QCA. For seven years, he led the national PESS investigation, which proved that high-quality PE, sport and dance had the power to change young people's lives for the better. More recently, he has supported schools and academy chains to improve assessment practice.

Outstanding PE under the new National Curriculum

- Unpick Ofsted's latest criteria
- Make assessment more about teaching and learning and less about administration
- Help all pupils to develop a lifelong love of physical activity, whatever the barriers

Make assessment simple for you and powerful for learners

- Use recording systems to inform your PE curriculum design
- Plan engaging units of work and lessons using assessment
- Examples of ongoing assessments that:
 - Motivate your pupils
 - Inform your planning
 - Meet your school's needs
- How and when to use feedback and praise
- Use core tasks to raise pupils' aspirations and standards
- Make reporting relevant for pupils and helpful for parents

Outstanding, time-saving assessment resources:

- How to use a lesson-by-lesson planning tool the Z-Planner
- How to use a U-Planner
- Visual, pupil-friendly recording tools
- Clear AfL methods for measuring and raising progress

"Really enjoyed the course. Feel I am leaving more confident, better informed and inspired."
