

EAL 3-7: Getting it right from the start

Presented by Tracy Fox

Tracy is an excellent teacher and trainer with in-depth knowledge and experience in organising phonics teaching. She has extensive experience with EAL, SEN and gifted children. As she still spends much of her time in the classroom, she is very focused on the needs of practitioners.

Use children's natural skill of language acquisition
Understand the cultural differences these children face

Receive practical activities and new assessment techniques

"Wow! A fantastic course. There was so much food for thought! I ran out of jotting paper! There are definitely lots of things that we need to consider at our school in light of this! Really useful, thank you."

Ann-Marie Sissons, Delegate

"Very informative, I enjoyed the group work, learning from others experiences. I gained knowledge in phonics and a deeper understanding of how EAL children learn."

Shaheen Hussain, Delegate
