How to reach Outstanding in 2017/18 – Ofsted myths debunked

- Achieve Ofsted's Outstanding by replacing forward planning with in-the-moment planning
- Ensure your record-keeping and assessment is up to date and ready for this approach

Renovate your existing environment to encourage happy, confident children

- Organise a workshop set up indoors and out
- Encourage first-hand experiences and risk-taking
- Embed a spontaneous culture – no longer set up activities in each area
- Promote parental involvement
- Uncover new induction techniques
- Support all children's individual circumstances and talents, including:
 - SEND
 - EAL
 - Boys

A toolkit to make your work manageable and rewarding

- 'In the moment' planning sheets
- Record-keeping sheets
- Sample letters to parents
- Examples of recorded observations
- List of resources and materials
- 100s of practical ideas for classroom organisation and storage
- Real examples of children's learning journeys

"I feel empowered to advise and make positive contributions/changes in the nursery."
