Exceed National Curriculum requirements, regardless of lesson length:

- Unpick the NEW Ofsted inspection framework
- Use Blooms Taxonomy to challenge every child
- Smooth the transition of MFL from KS2 to KS3
- Improve social inclusion
- Inspire an interest and appreciation of other European cultures

Boost understanding and responsiveness to spoken and written language:

- Allow SEN, EAL or lower ability students to shine
- Encourage pupils to speak with increasing confidence, fluency and spontaneity
- Use interesting and dynamic group work

Tools to blend rigour with enjoyment for MFL teaching in primary:

- Games - Puppet theatre - Songs - Poems
- Online tools - Free resources

"Excellent. Often trainers can be unrealistic or removed from the reality and/or challenges of teaching, but not Kim. It felt very practical and do-able. Thank you."

Louise Heritage, previous course delegate

"Kim Wells was excellent, knew his content, highly recommended. Would like him to come to school – great humour and such great knowledge."

Michael Yeabsley, Aldenham School
